CLARKSBURG CONVENTION Official Report of the Proceedings

CLARKSBURG, W. VA., May 11.

CLARKSBURG, W. V.A., May 11.

The Republicans of West Virginia assembled in convention at 10 o'clock a. M., and the convention was called to order by John W. Mason, Esq., chairman of the State Executive Committee. On his motion, O. G. Scofield, Esq., of Parkersburg, was elected temporary chairman. On motion of J. N. Wisner, of Martinsburg, C. M. Shian, of Grafton, was elected temporary Secretary.

The President introduced the business of the convention in remarks touching the object of the call, and closed by calting special attention to the fact that full West Virginia electoral vote had never yet been cast for a Democratic President. He was confident that the State would again prove its allegiance to Republicanism.

The President announced the conven-

Dector Brentlinger, Wisching, Yazi.

My Dran Frinkup-I am now in this city practicing medicine, and an treating a great many case of Scrotula, Syphilia, &c. I find I can't get along without your issuraparila and Dandellon. Do me the kindness of getting an Agent here to sail the Seraparilla and Dandellon. I am sure I can make saile of 1,000 bottles per year for you, if you will get an Agent here. You can find out by Than. Sweeney some good house, J. B. Hill's is one of the best houses in the city. He sails more to the planters than all the rest. Now, Doctor, write me as soon as you get an agent here.

Truly yours,

D. C. CHACRAFT.
